

Lambria N.Y. April 7th 57

Dear Father I received your letter of March 24 glad to hear from you I think Vermont from your account is rather colder than it is here since you left home it has been very pleas-ant weather most of the time however there has been some cold storms. had. April the sixth quite a snow storm but to day more pleasant We are all as well as us-ual, Enos started for Berlin the last of March Asa had a letter from him mailed at Cheaugo he was detained there a few hours, we expect him home this week Asa and Emily have received each a letter from <sup>you</sup> Asa has written to you I took a letter out of the <sup>office</sup> directed to you and opened it it was from Mary she writes they are well but nothing <sup>else</sup> very par-ticular or I would send it to you

I shall have to make a short letter as there is now news that would be partic-ularly interesting

Mary wants I should tell Grandpa to come home, she wants to see him.

To my Father, with respect. Henry Warren
